For the uninitiated, Magnepan is a manufacturer of planar speakers in Minneapolis. They are best known for their exceptional thinness, musicality, dollar value, and continuous popularity among audiophiles and music lovers alike. Featuring advanced technology in planar and ribbon design, with a 2" thick box-less form, Magnepan products are both aesthetically and sonically distinctive. For the initiated, well, you already know their secret, don't you.

This is not an event to sell Magnepan's - instead, Wendell Diller will present a unique demonstration of what sound is and can be in the rooms we listen to music in our homes. It is a perspective rarely if ever addressed by speaker manufacturers. Wendell will be using their newest 30.7 model for this demonstration, and this will be a "hands on" presentation and participation. This is very much a learning event. Wendell has delivered this presentation at 45 other stores around the country, and one you would do well to know about.

There will be limited space for this presentation, so we urge you to RSVP. Call us at 203-77-1750 or email us at rc@take5audio.com .

Our events are relaxed and informative, so spend a little time with some of the finest audio components in the world - and one of the nicest and most experienced gentleman in audio.

Free parking in the rear of the store, lot entrance on Trumbull St.
